

THE BOOK OF JOHN

for educators

JOHN 16:8-13

“And when He comes, He will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see Me no longer; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you in to all the truth, for he will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak, and he will declare to you all things that are to come.”

THERE'S A WORD FOR THAT!

Praise

Rejoice means to feel or show joy or delight. Let us rejoice in the Lord our God, Who is the authority of our schools. Rejoice!

Philippians 4:4 – Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice.

A Teacher's Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father,
The beauty of rejoicing in You over earthly things is that there is always something to be delighted with because You are amazing. Help us to look beyond our day-to-day routines and doldrums to Your vastness and intricacies. Let us rejoice in You always! We rejoice in the safety You have afforded us. We rejoice in the children under our care. We rejoice in Your kingdom to come. We rejoice that You hear our prayers. We rejoice in You. We pray in the delightful name of Jesus. Amen.

MEDITATION FOR THE MONTH

Esther 4:14 – For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

PRAYER, POSTURE AND PRACTICALITIES

1:16 PM prayer prompt – Please pray for God's wisdom to help students deal with anger.

Chair prayer – Action step #1 – Come in 15 minutes earlier and sit in the seats of a few or your students. Pray for them by name and for their family life at home.
