

For where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

Dear Heavenly Father,

Thank You for treasure Lord. Help us to see and cherish the gifts You have given us. O Lord, the end of the school year is a time of great effort and stress. Help us to pause Lord and cherish the gift of being in education. Thank You for giving us the opportunity to impact your children, both our students and our colleagues. Help us to see where we are spending most of our time and if it is not pleasing to You, help us to make the best use of our days. As summer quickly approaches Lord, help us take a serious look at what we will do with our treasure this summer. Help us to spend more time with You in prayer and in Your Word looking for direction from You. We give You our hearts today for You are our Treasure. We thank You in the the priceless name of Jesus. Amen.
