Our Church Library

Our Church Library is located across the hall from the Nursery. The library is open every day, the church is open. We have new books and movies added all through the year. We have children's books and material, Bible studies you can check out. Resource books to help with studying the Bible. If you have a book or movie you would like to have in the library, contact our office @565-3970 and we will order it. Mary Carnley is our Librarian, if she is not in the library when you visit, you can sign the card attached to the book or movie and leave it on the library desk.
