

The God Without Limits

Psalms 139

Pastor Bryan Walmer

January 29, 2023

Our God is infinite and incomprehensible.

Our God does not have any limits:

He is unbound by time, space, or anything else.

Our God is incomprehensible:

We cannot know Him fully, but we can know Him truly. He is not hiding anything from us.

We are not limitless or incomprehensible.

Our desire to be so comes from our desire to be on par with God.

The Good news of a limitless and incomprehensible God:

Our limitations are not weaknesses to be shed but gifts to be embraced.

Our limitations are gifts to be embraced because they cause us to rely on God.

We rely on a God who will forever amaze us.

Get our app – take notes – email them to yourself.