

SACRED

GOD'S INVITATION TO DRAW NEAR

After the Moment Passes | Leviticus 27:1-8

Pastor Bryan Walmer

God desires faithful devotion, not impressive promises.

Faithful devotion becomes concrete.

Vows were commitments to give God something either in a moment of need/distress or in a moment of joy/thankfulness.

Impressive promises need to have concrete next steps.

Faithful devotion remains when costly

Some promises are easily made in the moment, but hard to keep when the cost becomes evident.

We cannot substitute less costly versions of promises we make to God and each other.

Faithful devotion obeys without bargaining.

Ordinary obedience is not extraordinary faithfulness.

Obedience is worship, not currency.
