

GREATER THAN OUR CIRCUMSTANCES

Acts 28

1. Our circumstances do not have to define who we are. vv 1-10

Sometimes we let circumstances define who we are.

It is easy for us to define ourselves by the bad things that happen in our lives.

Jesus' definition of who we are is not founded in our circumstances.

2. Our circumstances do not have to define the outcome. vv 11-21

Sometimes it feels like because things have gone a certain way over and over again they are destined to continue going that way.

Jesus gives us hope that there can be moments of breakthrough where God transcends our circumstances.

We get to live a life that never gives up hope.
