Living for Jesus gives us:

Joy in the midst of suffering

The ultimate end of any suffering in our lives will be our deliverance to Jesus.

We receive joy from the presence of the Holy Spirit and prayers of God's people.

Joy gives us courage to face whatever might happen in our lives.

Peace in the face of death

Death is the means by which we are united with Jesus.

We need not have any fear of missing out.

Purpose for our lives

There is something for us to do here that is worth it!

Our purpose is to help others' progress and joy in the faith.
