

SACRED

GOD'S INVITATION TO DRAW NEAR

Let's Talk About Sex | Leviticus 18:1-8

The sexual ethic in the West is founded on three truths:

A person may not criticize someone else's life choices or behaviors.

A person may not behave in a manner that coerces or causes harm to others.

A person may not engage in a sexual relationship with someone without his or her consent. (Dale Kuehne)

God's plan for sex is that sex exclusively takes place in the context of marriage between one man and one woman.

Sex has boundaries because it is sacred. These boundaries are:

Good

God's boundaries lead to life.

God is not holding out on you.

Timeless

God's plan for sex transcends time, culture, and location.

What you do with your body matters.

Covered

We have all fallen short of God's ideal for sex.

Jesus lived up to the ideal on our behalf and absorbed the death we deserve.
