

Peaceful release: Letting Jesus Carry What's His

Isaiah 9:1-7

Pastor Bryan Walmer

December 5, 2021

Peace comes when we release more and more to Jesus.

Isaiah 9:1-7

Many of us carry responsibility that is not ours

Isaiah 9:6

The responsibility is placed on Jesus' shoulders.

When we live with that responsibility, we lose peace.

Two things to release to find peace:

1. Our necessity

Nothing that God wants to do is contingent on us.

Allow Jesus to carry the responsibility that is His.

2. Our kingdom

We all live, consciously or not, to build our own kingdom in the world.

Doing so robs us of peace because our kingdom is fragile and temporary.

Building Jesus' Kingdom brings peace because it is firm and permanent.

Jesus offers us peace with God through His work on the cross; guaranteeing we can find peace in our personal lives when we release things for Him to carry.