We tend to operate our lives based on credits/gains vs. debits/losses.

Gaining Jesus means gaining everything.

We can count all things in life as loss compared to having Jesus in our lives.

Gaining Jesus means gaining:

Right relationship

Deep relationship

Forever relationship

Gaining Jesus means gaining everything because nothing compares to Him.

There are lots of things we try to put in our credit column alongside Jesus.

These things are not necessarily bad they just do not compare in any way to Jesus.

Gaining Jesus means gaining everything because nothing compares to Him so do not settle for less!

Beware of settling for less than Jesus by treating anything as being in the same category as Him.

Do you view Jesus as the gain that counts all else in your life as loss?
