Discovering Contentment In Christ

Honoring What Christ Has Done

Philippians 2:12-18

Who Jesus is and what He has done for us is worthy of us honoring Him in our lives. We can honor Jesus by:

Owning our faith

We do not work for a salvation we do not have; we work out a salvation that is already ours in Christ.

Our faith needs to be ours, not because of the presence of someone else in our life.

Showing our faith

We should do everything in life without grumbling and arguing because grumbling and arguing are as sinful as things like murder.

Living without grumbling and arguing helps us stand out as different from a world that needs Jesus.

Anticipating our faith

One solution to grumbling and arguing is rejoicing.

Rejoicing means intentional gladness around and celebration of the coming promises we know we have through Jesus.
