When Everything Changes

Gaining Jesus should lead to:

Active participation in Jesus' plan

When Jesus took a hold of Paul, it was just the beginning of change.

Paul had a love-based pursuit to fulfill Jesus' plan for his life.

We have an active role to play in the gospel.

Commitment, not distraction

Maturity in our faith involves a commitment to the plan of Jesus.

Immaturity comes when we are distracted and replace Jesus' plan with our own plan.

Testing times in life reveal our identity and our true commitment.

A changed life worth emulating

If I'm not really changing after gaining Jesus, then I'm settling for less.

I can be an example through any circumstance in life.

No matter how bad my past was, I can live a life that emulates Jesus today.
