

JAMES: FAITH IN ACTION

The Best Laid Plans | James 4:13-17

We all make plans.

Planning is good, but God is in control.

It is good to make plans.

We must remember, in our planning, who is in control.

Forgetting God is in control:

Does not involve God in our plans.

Plans out every detail as if they will happen.

Asks God to bless plans in which we did not involve Him.

Remembering God is in control:

Recognizes our need for God.

Listens to what Jesus says.

Allows God to interrupt our plans.

Sins of commission: doing what God says not to do.

Sins of omission: disregarding what God has said to do.
