Communication is an important part of cultivating any relationship. God has given us prayer to do that.

Prayer is communal.

Prayer is not just an individual practice.

We should have a community of prayer in our lives.

Prayer can be simple.

We overcomplicate what prayer needs to be.

Keeping prayer simple can make it less daunting.

Prayer can be a struggle.

We struggle with prayer because our communication with God is cut off by sin.

Prayer is a key way to struggle against sin in our lives

Prayer is essential.

Prayer builds intimacy with God.

Prayer shapes us into who God wants us to be.
