Open your Bibles and have someone read Psalm 91.

1. Think about the biblical definitions we talked about today, what does it mean to dwell in the shelter of the Most High? And then, if you are dwelling there, what is the result according to the second part of verse 1?
2. When you dwell and abide there, what happens to you according to verse 2. What do you say? Whom do you trust?
3. Why do you suppose this happens to you? Do you begin to see God for Who He is – and then what He does? According to verses 3 and 4, what does He do?
4. According to the biblical definitions we learned today, what are His pinions? What other metaphors does the Psalmist use in verse 4?
5. What else happens to you when you dwell with God according to verses 5 and 6?
6. What happens to the wicked (those who do not know Christ) according to verse 8?
7. From what we learned today, in verse 10, what does it mean that no evil will befall you or that no plague will come near your tent?
8. Talk about the role of angels in the life of Jesus from what you learned today. How does this encourage you in your day-to-day life?
