A FEW WAYS TO REFUEL

This Sunday, is our third Rest Day of the year. In a world full of anxiety-inducing busyness, the people of God should know that it is okay to take time to rest and recover from the work that has been done and refuel for the work ahead.

Below are a few ways you can practice rest throughout the week.

Fasting (Matthew 4:2)

Start small. Push a meal back a few hours. Take time to pray or read your Bible instead of eating.

Resting (Matthew 8:24)

Prioritize a good night's sleep on Saturday so that you come to class and worship well-rested.

Put your cellphone away for an evening. Spend time resting from distraction.

Fellowship (Matthew 9:10)

Invite someone out to eat and/or accept an invite to eat with someone.

Next time you are at class/worship, stay awhile and talk instead of rushing out. Say "yes" to an upcoming church event.

Solitude (Matthew 14:13, 22-23)

Find a quiet place. Take 10 or so minutes to pray, sing, read your Bible, or sit in silence away from the noise of the world.

Prayer (Matthew 26:36-44)

Take 5 minutes today to pray for what you are thankful for, for your spiritual growth, and for opportunities to reach others with the gospel.

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."

Matthew 11:28-29
