The commission Jesus gives us in Matthew 28:19-20 is both our responsibility and privilege to fulfill.

Read carefully through the passage and then think about what it means for you and our church to deliberately work together to accomplish Jesus' assignment. Remember, this isn't merely theory or information, but to be actively pursued by all of us for Jesus' sake. We have divided up the passage with room to record your thoughts and ways to engage. This would be a great discussion guide around a meal with friends and family or Small Group.

Jesus came and told his disciples, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth.

Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you.

And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

MESSAGE NOTES

Series: REDO
Message: Don't Go It Alone
Speaker: Rusty Coram
Date: January 25/26, 2020

The moment we accept Christ as our savior and leader, we are His partners.

...He has invited you into partnership with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
1 Corinthians 1:9 (NLT)

His partners are His church.

<sup>21</sup> Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come. <sup>22</sup> God has put all things under the authority of Christ and has made him head over all things for the benefit of the church. <sup>23</sup> And the church is his body; it is made full and complete by Christ, who fills all things everywhere with himself.
Ephesians 1:21-23 (NLT)

As his partners, we work together to invest our lives for His work.

<sup>24</sup> Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. <sup>25</sup> And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.
Hebrews 10:24-25 (NLT)

If we are not engaged in His work, we will never experience the reality of the new life He offers.

<sup>18</sup> Jesus came and told his disciples, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup> Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age."
Matthew 28:18-20 (NLT)

make disciples -

all nations -

baptizing -

teaching -

obey -

all commands -

The bookends of our commission: Jesus has all authority and He is with us always.

Our past mistakes can take control of our lives and define us. If we dwell on the past and give up, there is no hope for positive change. But, the good news is that Jesus offers us forgiveness, hope and power – genuine power - to change! We don't have to be defined by our past. Instead, we can learn from it and move forward with purpose and hope, and in the process, make a real difference in the world.
