When we celebrate Baptism, it's a great opportunity to remember what we're called to do as Jesus' church. Sometimes we slide into activities that consume our time and attention but are not the top priorities according to Jesus. Take some time and think about the implications of the passage below and how you can specifically take action to make it happen. Do this by yourself or with some others and pray that God will lead you to do something about it this week!

¹⁸ Jesus drew near and said to them, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples: baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I will be with you always, to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:18–20 (GNB)

All authority

Go to all peoples

Make them my disciples

Baptize them

Teach them to obey everything

I will be with you always
