

MESSAGE NOTES

Series: A Thrill of Hope
Message: Hope that Never Disappoints
Speaker: Rusty Coram
Date: December 26/27, 2020

We are all created to live with hope, but when misplaced it brings inevitable disappointment.

In a broken world, we need hope that we can count on.

<sup>8</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in people. <sup>9</sup> It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes.
Psalm 118:8-9 (NLT)

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.

Matthew 11:28-30 (NLT)

Jesus came so you and I can experience hope, peace, confidence and joy.

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us. <sup>2</sup> Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory. <sup>3</sup> We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. <sup>4</sup> And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation. <sup>5</sup> And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

Romans 5:1-5 (NLT)

The world is still broken, but the hope God offers never will be!

We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.
