

TAKE HOME SHEET

Series: At the Movies
Message: Mission Impossible Fallout
Speaker: Rusty Coram
Date: August 17/18, 2019

The beginning of the passage the message focused on says this:

<sup>31</sup> But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit upon his glorious throne. <sup>32</sup> All the nations will be gathered in his presence, and he will separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup> He will place the sheep at his right hand and the goats at his left. <sup>34</sup> Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world.'

Matthew 25:31-34 (NLT)

Jesus wants you and me to understand that the authenticity of our faith will show up in how we treat others, especially those in need. This is what we see in Jesus and what He expects to see in us.

Think about the people you have contact with, particularly people that fit the specific categories that Jesus mentions (hungry, thirsty, stranger, naked, sick, in prison). Write their names or where you see them.

Now think of some people that may have different needs, but still fit what Jesus is talking about (i.e. socially awkward co-worker or neighbor). Write their name or where you see them.

Jesus wants us to treat the people around us like He would, showing interest, compassion and concern. Pray for each of the ones you listed and ask Him to give you the love and courage to do something for them in Jesus' name.

MESSAGE NOTES

Series: At the Movies
Message: Mission Impossible Fallout
Speaker: Rusty Coram
Date: August 17/18, 2019

Two things to keep in mind when watching and evaluating movies:

Look for truth.

...we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:5 (NIV)

Look for connections.

I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. <sup>23</sup> I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

1 Corinthians 9:22-23 (NLT)

MI Fallout shows the importance of genuinely valuing others. Jesus says that this is the mark of a true Follower of Jesus.

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. <sup>36</sup> I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.' <sup>37</sup> Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? <sup>38</sup> Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? <sup>39</sup> When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?' <sup>40</sup> And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'

Matthew 25:35-40 (NLT)

You don't have to be a Christian to show compassion and care for others. But a true follower of Jesus does.

<sup>41</sup> Then the King will turn to those on the left and say, 'Away with you, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his demons. <sup>42</sup> For I was hungry, and you didn't feed me. I was thirsty, and you didn't give me a drink. <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger, and you didn't invite me into your home. I was naked, and you didn't give me clothing. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't visit me.' <sup>44</sup> Then they will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and not help you?' <sup>45</sup> And he will answer, 'I tell you the truth, when you refused to help the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were refusing to help me.' <sup>46</sup> And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous will go into eternal life.

Matthew 25:41-46 (NLT)

A trip to the movies can offer us many things – entertainment, time spent with friends and family, an escape from our daily lives by transporting us to a different time and place, and maybe an excuse to eat popcorn with extra butter. While those things may be true, there is much more. Movies are simply stories that offer us a chance to step into a different perspective, often freeing us from the constraints of our own thinking. Join us as we look for messages of faith in three lesser known, yet compelling movies from the last year.

How to Read the Bible Like a Seminary Professor: For many, trying to understand the Bible can be an intimidating task. Readers often don't know the cultural and historical background for various passages in the Bible, or even understand the context in which a message was originally given. Theological concepts and doctrines may be unclear or even unknown. Parts of the Bible are written in different styles, further complicating understanding. Contemporary translations of the Bible try to simplify the message, but they also face the problem of not capturing the whole picture for the reader. In this group, you will learn how to unlock some of these mysteries by using the same techniques that professional scholars use. You'll take a six-week journey into the structure and style of the Bible, learn its different literary genres and their purpose, and gain tools for studying the Bible for the rest of your life. Participants will read and use the course book, How to Read the Bible Like a Seminary Professor by Dr. Mark Yarbrough from Dallas Theological Seminary. Each class, we'll review the reading, enjoy lively discussion and take part in practical applications. Participants must purchase the textbook and they should have a Bible app on their phone or device in class to access several different translations of the Bible. This group, led by Bill Soderberg, will meet on Thursdays beginning September 5th at 7:00 pm. Questions? Please contact Bill Soderberg at williamsoderberg@cox.net. To register, please go to: bit.ly/bibleprofessor.

Starting Point is a conversational environment where people can explore faith and experience community. It's a safe place for people with questions about faith, as well as those who want to learn about the Bible and Christianity.

You may have questions you never felt you could ask at church; legitimate questions that would make many Christians uncomfortable. Ask them. Nothing is off-limits. We want to have conversations about the stuff that really matters to you—even when it's difficult to talk about—especially when it's difficult to talk about.

Starting Point is designed for:

SEEKERS: those who are curious about God, Jesus, the Bible, or Christianity

STARTERS: those who have just begun a relationship with Jesus Christ

RETURNERS: those with some church experience, but have been away

This group will begin on Saturday, September 14th and end on Saturday, November 9th, and is led by Kim Feld and Terri Abblett. We will meet at New Hope during the Saturday 5:30 pm service. Questions? Contact Kim Feld at kim.feld@newhope.org. To register, please go to: bit.ly/startingpointfall19.
