8 Dumb Things –
If I Take Care of God's House, He'll Take Care of Mine

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS

Key Verse: 1 Tim 3:1-5 (Please read together as a group)

1. The sermon challenges the idea that serving in God's house excuses us from our responsibilities at home. In what ways can we be tempted to use ministry or spiritual activity to avoid the difficult work of investing in our marriage and family?

_____

_____

2. Pastor Chris makes a clear distinction between our feelings and biblical truth, emphasizing that when the two conflict, our feelings must be brought into alignment with Scripture. How do you respond when God's Word challenges something you strongly want to believe or feel?

_____

_____

3. Eli knew about his sons' sinful behavior but failed to restrain or correct them, and God held him accountable for his inaction. What does Eli's story teach us about the importance of parental discipline and taking spiritual leadership seriously in our homes?

_____

_____

4. King David was called a man after God's own heart, yet his family was marked by dysfunction, conflict, and violence. How can someone genuinely love and pursue God while still failing in their role as a husband or father? What warning should David's life give us today?
