

Sermon Notes

A Good Start to a New Year!

Psalm 24

January 04, 2026

1. David begins this Psalm with a declaration that everything in the world _____ to God.
2. All of this belongs to God because He _____ it and is the _____ that allows it to continue to exist.
3. In verse 3, David reminds us although everything and everyone were created by God, _____ everyone can _____ in His presence.
4. Who can _____ the presence of God and _____ before Him?
 - A. The person who has _____ hands and a _____ heart.
 - B. The one who has not _____ his/her _____ on what is _____.
 - C. The one who has not sworn _____
5. The person who _____ each day as described above will receive a _____ from the Lord.

6. The one who lives this way will receive

----- from the God of his/her salvation.

7. When our mind and actions are as they should be we will ----- God.

8. In these verses a transition occurs, now it is the God

(the King of Glory) who comes to us as we

----- the gates of our -----.

A. Who is the ----- of Glory?

1. The Lord ----- and

2. The Lord mighty in -----

3. The Lord of -----

B. David reminds us that the King of Glory

----- a ----- with each one of us.