Matthew 22:37
This shows us the way in which we must deal with unbelief in ourselves, & in others. It is a lesson which should be treated as such. Jesus at the table of the Lord had repeated the words of the case before us. They had repeated his words, but we have even more to say to us. We must be sure to remember that we are to love the Lord with all our heart, mind, & soul.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill and cumin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former. You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.”
