

Expect

What is redemptively true in Christ, must become actively true in the Church.

As we sit in Holy Week awaiting Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday, take a moment consider what the Lord has been doing in your heart these past six weeks.

- What prayers have you seen God answer?
- What longings have been stirred during this season?
- What are you hoping for this weekend?
- Who could you invite to our Easter service this Sunday? Make a commitment to invite them (even if they're unlikely to accept the invitation!).
