Exodus 3:7-8, 10-15 - Then the LORD told him, “I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their cries of distress because of their harsh slave drivers. Yes, I am aware of their suffering. <sup>8</sup>So I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and lead them out of Egypt into their own fertile and spacious land. It is a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>Now go, for I am sending you to Pharaoh. You must lead my people Israel out of Egypt.” <sup>11</sup>But Moses protested to God, “Who am I to appear before Pharaoh? Who am I to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?” <sup>12</sup>God answered, “I will be with you. <sup>13</sup>But Moses protested, “If I go to the people of Israel and tell them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ they will ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what should I tell them?” <sup>14</sup>God replied to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM. Say this to the people of Israel: I AM has sent me to you.” This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations.

Exodus 4:1-4, 10-14 - But Moses protested again, “What if they won’t believe me or listen to me? What if they say, ‘The LORD never appeared to you?’” <sup>2</sup>Then the LORD asked him, “What is that in your hand?” “A shepherd’s staff,” Moses replied. <sup>3</sup>“Throw it down on the ground,” the LORD told him. So Moses threw down the staff, and it turned into a snake! Moses jumped back. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD told him, “Reach out and grab its tail.” So Moses reached out and grabbed it, and it turned back into a shepherd’s staff in his hand. <sup>10</sup>But Moses pleaded with the LORD, “O Lord, I’m not very good with words. I never have been, and I’m not now, even though you have spoken to me. I get tongue-tied, and my words get tangled.” <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD asked Moses, “Who makes a person’s mouth? Who decides whether people speak or do not speak, hear or do not hear, see or do not see? Is it not I, the LORD? <sup>13</sup>But Moses again pleaded, “Lord, please! Send anyone else.” <sup>14</sup>Then the LORD became angry with Moses.

NEW SERMON SERIES

We all have something we thought we were Most Likely To do with our life. Are you doing what you, others, or God thought you were Most Likely To do? God always sees something in us that we can't see in ourselves. Join us for the conclusion of this series next week as we discuss why so many people settle for the status quo when God has something incredible waiting for us.

LIFE GROUP KICKOFF

We were never meant to do life alone. One of the best way for us to grow in our relationship with Jesus is by getting connected to others. Pray about joining a group this year and discovering what God can do in your life. Stop by the display on Main Street to find out more information about joining or starting your own group. Life Groups begin the week of Sept. 8th.
