What is a disciple-maker?

Reflection: Three questions to ask yourself that will guide your progress in becoming an effective disciple-maker:

Jesus, what do you need me to do so you can:

1. Turn up the dial in my relationship with you?
2. Turn up the dial or turn down the dial on the relationships in my life?
3. Turn up the dial in my relationships with those you've entrusted to me to disciple?

What is God's end goal for disciple-making relationships?

 This is the shift that determines the discipling.

Reflection: Three questions to ask yourself to guide your progress when discipling the disciple God entrusts to you.

Jesus, what do you need me to do so you can:

(Write names of who you are discipling.)

1. Turn up the dial in discipling, _____, so their relationship with Jesus grows? (Child/Disciple)
2. Turn up or turn down the dial of relationships that are in the life of my disciple, _____, to create a healthy spiritual community for growth? (Child/Disciple)
3. Turn up the dial in how I build my relationship with my disciple, _____, so I can continue to have a lasting influence on their life? (Child/Disciple)
