Never Say Never

When the trumpets sounded, the army shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the men gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed; so everyone charged straight in, and they took the city. They destroyed with the sword every living thing in it – men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys. (Joshua 6:20-21)

When have you seen the seemingly impossible actually happen? She dug down deep and won the race. He not only graduated – but graduated with honors. The daredevil completed the stunt, the figure skater landed the triple axel, and the last person you ever would have expected accepted Jesus as Savior and Lord. The impossible is not so impossible when the Lord is involved.

Nothing is impossible with God, but it can be difficult to walk through to the moment when God shows up and makes the impossible happen. Do you think these soldiers felt maybe just a little foolish as they took a walking field trip around the mighty city of Jericho? Do you think there might have been taunting by the residents of Jericho? Joshua’s fighting men literally stepped out in faith – and the impossible happened. So never say never when you’re stepping toward the impossible per God’s command.

Never say never – but always say “Thank You” to the doer of the impossible.

Spring Quarter Classes

Sunday morning classes:

Worship hall, Gary Forrester will lead a study on the Psalms of Ascent (Psalms 120–134). These psalms focus on themes of worship, God’s protection, and the journey toward His presence.

Fellowship hall, Lenn Moses will lead a study of the “One Another” passages. These verses describe how Christians should interact with one another. (Brown Table Side)

Fellowship hall, Stephen Walker will continue to lead the young adults in a study of questions about our faith. (Round Table Side)

Wednesday evening classes:

Wednesday evening, Kelley Beerbower will lead the ladies’ class on a study of the book of Philippians. (Round Table Side)

Wednesday evening, Jimmy Williamson will conclude the study of 2 Samuel, the life and reign of God’s chosen king. (Brown Table Side)
