Count Your Many Blessings

A man was on a short term mission trip at a leper colony on the island of Tobago. One of his duties was to lead singing during the worship times. One Sunday, there was time for one more song, so he asked if anyone had a request. A woman who had been facing away from the pulpit turned around.

The missionary later reported, “It was the most hideous face I had ever seen. The woman’s nose and ears were entirely gone. The disease had destroyed her lips as well. She lifted a fingerless hand in the air and asked, ‘Can we sing ‘Count Your Many Blessings’?’”

Overcome with emotion, the missionary left the service. He was followed by another team member who said, “I guess you’ll never be able to sing that song again.” “Yes I will,” he replied, “but I’ll never sing it the same way.”

As you spend this holiday season counting your blessings, remember that our blessedness is not based upon what we do or do not have in this world. We are blessed simply in being God’s creation and being saved by His grace.

“Know that the LORD, he is God!
It is he who made us, and we are his;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and his courts with praise!
Give thanks to him; bless his name!”

Psalm 100:3-4
