Purpose

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago. (Ephesians 2:10 NLT)

Our lives are not made up of random events pieced together by the hands of time. We were created with intention and purpose by the hands of God. The Greek word poiema, which is translated "masterpiece," describes a work that only God can do. As an artist creating with intention, God has crafted us. He has made us a beautiful depiction of the work he is doing in the world.

No two people are alike. Each of us is uniquely gifted to do the good works God has prepared for us to do. Crafting our history, weaving in our giftedness, and fastening our future, God continues to mold us for his purpose. He wants to use us to bring life to those around us and to encourage those under our care. When we embrace our uniqueness and live with purpose, we can confidently step into God's calling for our lives.

God, open my eyes to see what makes me unique. Help me discover my unique role in your kingdom. As I seek the good works you want me to step into, continue molding me to make me more like you. Amen.

Spring Quarter Classes

Sunday morning classes:

Worship hall, Gary Forrester will lead a study on the Psalms of Ascent (Psalms 120–134). These psalms focus on themes of worship, God's protection, and the journey toward His presence.

Fellowship hall, Lenn Moses will lead a study of the "One Another" passages. These verses describe how Christians should interact with one another. (Brown Table Side)

Fellowship hall, Stephen Walker will continue to lead the young adults in a study of questions about our faith. (Round Table Side)

Wednesday evening classes:

Wednesday evening, Kelley Beerbower will lead the ladies' class on a study of the book of Philippians. (Round Table Side)

Wednesday evening, Jimmy Williamson will conclude the study of 2 Samuel, the life and reign of God's chosen king. (Brown Table Side)
