A Thought On Psalm 119

Psalm 119 is one of the most recognizable psalms, due mostly to its length. It is the longest psalm at 176 verses. It is not just the longest psalm in the book of Psalms, but it is also the longest chapter in the Bible. It is even longer than other whole books of the Bible.

This psalm is a poem written in acrostic format. An acrostic is a poem where each line or stanza begins with a corresponding letter. In this psalm, each stanza consists of 8 verses. Those 8 verses all begin with the same letter of the Hebrew alphabet. The poem works through all 22 letters in the Hebrew alphabet, devoting 8 verses to each letter.

We are uncertain of who wrote this psalm or even when they wrote it. It is impossible to pinpoint it to a single occasion that might have inspired the writing. However, what we can quickly recognize is the theme of this psalm. This psalm is a celebration of the gift of God’s Word. The very first verse sets the tone of the psalm by singing, “Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD!” (Psalm 119:1). The psalm will continue to sing of the greatness of God’s law, testimonies, precepts, statutes, commandments, rules, and word.

The psalmist appropriately recognizes that this world is full of worthless things, but fulfillment in life is found in God’s ways that are laid out for us in His law. The psalmist writes in (Psalm 119:36-37), “Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to selfish gain! Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things and give me life in your ways.”

The theme of this psalm reminds us why our time spent in God’s Word is extremely valuable and irreplaceable. Life is found in the ways of God, and the ways of God are found in God’s Word. So, let our prayer this week echo the prayer of the psalmist:

“Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.” (Psalm 119:18)
