Session 12 Jesus Stills the Tempest, Heals, and Makes Last Visit to Nazareth

MATTHEW 8:18,23-34; 13:54-58; 9:27-34; 14:1-12; MARK 4:35-6:6; LUKE 8:22-9:6

Jesus Stills the Tempest

Matthew 8:18, 23-27	Mark 4:35-41	Luke 8:22-35
 18 Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to depart to the other side of the sea. 23 And when He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. 24 And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being covered with the waves; but Jesus Himself was sleeping. 25 And they came to Him and got Him up, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing!" 26 And He said to them, "Why are you so cowardly, you men of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm. 27 And the men marveled, and said, "What kind of a man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?" 	35 And on that day, when evening came, He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side." 36 And leaving the crowd, they took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat so that the boat was already filling up. 38 And Jesus Himself was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion; and they got Him up and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?" 39 And He woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Silence! Be still." And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm. 40 And He said to them, "Why are you so cowardly? Do you still have no faith?" 41 And they became very afraid and were saying to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"	22 Now it happened that on one of those days He and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So, they set out. 23 But as they were sailing along, He fell asleep, and a windstorm descended on the lake, and they began to be swamped and in danger. 24 And they came to Him and woke Him up, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And He woke up and rebuked the wind and the surging waves, and they stopped, and it became calm. 25 And He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were fearful and marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?"

	18 And as He was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed was pleading with Him that he might accompany Him. 19 And He did not let him, but He said to him, "Go home to your people and report to them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He had mercy on you." 20 And he went away and began to preach in the Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was marveling.	38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging Him that he might accompany Him. But He sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your house and recount what great things God has done for you." So, he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

The Guilty Fears of Herod Antipas

Matthew 14:1-12	Mark 6:14-29	Luke 9:7-9
1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus, 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him." 3 For when Herod had John arrested, he bound him and put him in prison because	 14 And King Herod heard it, for His name had become well known; and people were saying, "John the Baptist has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him." 15 But others were saying, "He is Elijah." And others were saying, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." 16 But when Herod heard it, he kept saying, "John, whom I beheaded, has risen!" 	7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was happening, and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of
