Introduction:

There is no value we can put on what it cost to become a Champion. But oftentimes we look at Champions from the outside in, instead of the inside out. Getting to blinded by the lifestyle of a Champion, instead of what it really takes to become one. Ironically, to truly become a Champion the right way there needs to be a coach's eye who is honest and caring enough to tell you the truth about where you are and where you need to go. This requires humility. Let's posture our hearts in a place of humility to receive what the Lord has for us today.
