I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6

Why is the claim “there is only one way to God” so controversial?

Myth 1: All religions are basically the same.

Myth 2: Christianity is simply one philosophy among many.

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. ⁶After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born. I Corinthians 15:3-8

Myth 3: Christians are narrow-minded to think Jesus is the only way to heaven.

Christianity is unique. It cannot be reconciled with any other religion. It backs up its truth claims with the credentials and credibility of Jesus Christ, which cannot be duplicated by any other spiritual leader.
