Text: Luke 13:10-17

On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. When Jesus saw her, He called her forward and said to her, 'Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.' Then He put His hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God. Luke 13:10-13

1. _____ Around

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Matthew 9:36

2. Take a _____

If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much. If you are kind only to your friends, how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that. Matthew 5:46-47 (NLT)

For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. 2 Corinthians 5:14

3. _____ Out

- He saw her
- He talked to her
- He put his hand on her

4. _____ the Moment

My dear children let's not just talk about love, lets practice real love. 1 John 3:18
