

The Goal of Forthrightness
Psalm 33
Al Gascon | July 26, 2026

- Forthrightness must always pilot us to true worship.

“Worship cannot be isolated or relegated to just one place, time, or segment of our lives. We cannot verbally thank and praise God while living lives of selfishness and carnality. That kind of effort at worship is a perversion. Real acts of worship must be the overflow of a worshiping life... As God warms the heart with righteousness and love, the resulting life of praise that boils over is the truest expression of worship.” John MacArthur

- Reasons to Praise God
 1. The Truth of His Word.
 2. His faithfulness towards his people.
 3. His righteousness, justness, and holiness.
 4. The planet being filled with his love.
 5. The creation he himself made.
 6. His sovereignty over creation & the nations.
 7. His will cannot be uprooted.
 8. His gaze is always toward us.
 9. His protection is always upon us.
 10. His unfailing love never departs.
