

Sardis
Revelation 3:1-6
Al Gascon | March 10, 2024

2 Timothy 2:3-4

Revelation 3:1-6

⇒ Sardis wake up before you die! You think you're alive and well but you're knocking on hell's door! Wake up and remember what you've heard and who you serve. Repent, come alive, and I will clothe and acknowledge you in the sight of the Father.

Discussion Questions

- a. What was the biggest boundary Jesus helped you put up when you started to follow him? Meaning was there anything in your life that you knew you couldn't do anymore in Christ?
- b. Do you think the Christian life is harder during times of prosperity and peace or during times of persecution and martyrdom?
- c. How should the concepts of "Lordship" and "soldier" help the church and individual Christian during times of peace and prosperity?
- d. Complete this sentence based on how you'd like Christ to acknowledge you to the father and the angels. "This is my servant, my brother/sister who _____ for my name."
- e. Fun question: When Jesus clothes you in all white garments what would you like your outfit to be if you could choose? What white accessories would you want? Guys I suppose holsters count, but I doubt you'd need them in heaven.