

God's Plan Step One: Raise the Dead
Ephesians 2:1-10
Al Gascon | April 28, 2024

Ephesians 1:18-23, 2:1-10

John 5:24-26

Acts 19:11

⇒ Nobody is too far gone for the grace of God to not wipe away the sin and mistakes they've made. By grace we are saved.

"If God, in the coming ages, is going to show the incomparable riches of his grace, how can heaven be boring? The riches of his grace overshadow all stray thoughts and our questions of what heaven will be like... monarchs display the contents of the treasuries and millionaires parade their luxury cars, but God's display is of his kindness." – John MacArthur

Discussion Questions

- a. I know this is a question that cannot be fully answered, but what in your opinion does the full outpouring of God's grace in eternity look like?
- b. If you were God and there was one evil in this world from Satan that you could reverse or simply do away with altogether, what would it be?
- c. I'm what ways have you seen the power of God showcased in a grand fashion? This can be in your life, in someone else's, or in general.
- d. What has been the greatest act of grace/mercy you've ever received from another human being?
- e. I have 2 statements from 2 different Jewish Rabbis I'd like you to discuss (and dismantle):
 - i. "The only thing we bring with us into the afterlife, our credit card, is our good works."
 - ii. "One mitzvah (good deed) done by a person in this world is greater than all of heaven, for in heaven we can no longer do mitzvah."