Dr. Rick Stedman

A. What is a commitment?

1. In the Bible, commitments are called promises and covenants.
2. God is a commitment-maker and -keeper.
3. Humans have been created in God’s image, so we too are to be commitment-makers and -keepers.

B. Why make a commitment?

1. Commitment is the tool God uses to shape our future!
2. Commitment precedes any significant growth!

C. I am radically committed to:

1. The Word of God. (28-29)
2. Godliness in my family. (30)
3. Godliness in my business. (31)
4. Godliness in my service & finances. (32-39) read

D. How to make a commitment: (9:38-10:27)

1. Make it bold.
2. Make it based on faith.
3. Make it written.
4. Make it for the Lord.

Personally: If I am to grow and if God’s dream is to come true in my life, I need to commit myself to: _____.
