Revelation 2:12-17

The message to the church at Pergamum can be summed up as such:

- Your church has been faithful under duress, so don't allow false teachings to bring you from grace into judgment; return to me and my word, and I will cast my white stone on your behalf.

Discussion Questions

- a. Have you ever encountered false teaching in any church or gathering you attended?
- b. Where on earth in the modern day would you say Satan has his throne?
- c. Outside of actually worshiping false gods, what does modern idolatry look like in your opinion?
- d. Let's dream and imagine a little bit. What do you think the Messianic banquet, the great feast of the consummation of the kingdom, will be like?
- e. Which blessing interests you more, the white stone or the hidden manna?
