Call to Worship Psalm 30:1-5, 11-12

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.
Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.
Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.
Sing praises to the Lord, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.
You have turned my mourning into dancing;
You have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,
So that my soul may praise you and not be silent.
Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Hymn	Come Sing to God	(Words at end of bulletin)
Scripture	John 20:24-31

This is the Word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God!

Sermon	Re-Start with Jesus	Rev. Dr. Alan Dorway

Hymn Pass It On (Words at end of bulletin)

Communion Liturgy

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to you, Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to praise you, Lord.

Chancel Choir No More Night Directed by Steve Torrence

Holy are you, God who leads us by the hands out of our shadowed lives, and blessed is Jesus Christ, who feeds us life. When we cried, he came to wipe away our tears; when we were speechless, he taught us songs of praise; when we dressed in ashes, he gave us grace's garments; though we loved sin and death more than we loved him, he went to the cross, filling death's nets with his spirit, so its power over us might be emptied forever.

As we remember the Lamb who is worthy, as we come to the Lamb's Feast this day, we remember that mystery we call faith:

Christ died, as God's heart broke;
Christ was raised, as all creation sang in joy;
Christ will come, as we are gathered in the fullness of time.

Lead us by the hand, gracious God, to the Table where the bread, the cup, and the guests all receive the Spirit which is poured out upon them. As we come to eat of the bread, may its brokenness give us strength to stand up to persecutors of the most vulnerable; to challenge those who love themselves more than the frightened and lonely. May the cup of life fill us with the courage to feed those who hunger for grace and hope; to tenderly care for those discarded by the world.

Then, when the Lamb gathers those of every time and place for eternity, we will come and worship you, God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.

Communion
Our Lord Jesus, on the night of his arrest, took bread, and after giving thanks to God, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

> Take, eat. This is my body, given for you.
> Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way he took the cup, saying:

> This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink this cup, do it in remembrance of me.

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the saving death of the risen Lord, until he comes.

Communion is shared – Today we invite you to come forward and partake in the Lord's Supper in one of two ways. First, you may take the prefilled communion cup and head back to your pew. Or you may take a piece of bread and dip it in the prefilled cup before returning to your pew. Either way, all are invited to come forward and share in this meal.
