Call to Worship – Luke 1:46b-55

One: My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

All: For he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant.

One: Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name.

All: His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

One: He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

All: He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.

One: He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,

All: According to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.

Hymn – Once in Royal David's City #49

*All hymns can be found at the end of the bulletin

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

One: New life is coming.

All: We can count it in days now.

One: God is breaking through.

All: God's Word will change the world.

One: We will all be changed by God's steadfast love.

All: The covenant has come down through the generations.

One: The love of God is never-ending.

All: We give thanks for God's faithfulness.

One: Today we light the candle of Love.

(Light the fourth candle.)

All: We give thanks for God's steadfast Love.

Dear God, your faithfulness has been great, leading us to this day of anticipation and celebration. May the glorious light of your steadfast love shine brightly in us and through us, that all may give you praise and glory. In the Savior's name we pray. Amen.

Prayer of Confession and the Lord's Prayer

Holy Creator, we confess and acknowledge that you created us in your own image and likeness, so that in our whole nature no imperfection could be found. From this dignity and perfection humanity has fallen, both conspiring against your sovereign majesty. We have shown ourselves hostile to you, and have made ourselves servants to sin. And thus everlasting death has power and dominion over us all, unless we are reborn from above. By the power of the Holy Spirit, work this rebirth in us, creating in our hearts the confidence of chosen ones, with assured faith in your promise revealed to us in your Word; by this faith we grasp Christ Jesus with the graces and blessings promised in him.

Scots Confession, 3.02-3.03

As we reflect, let us hear this prayer: Come, my Light, and illumine my darkness. Come, my Life, and revive me from death. Come, my Physician, and heal my wounds. Come, Flame of divine love, and burn up the thorns of my sins, kindling my heart with the flame of your love. Come, my King, sit upon the throne of my heart and reign there, for you alone are my King and my Lord. Prayer by Dimitri of Rostov
(moment for silent confession and reflection)

Believe the good news! God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. John 3:17

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be your name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
