

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF EVERETT

Online Worship Bulletin

June 4, 2023 – 10am

*For our liturgy this morning, BOLD text invites all to join in the reading.

The First Presbyterian Church of Everett welcomes you to worship. Our Friendship Pads are back in our pews. We hope you take a moment to fill them out. This is a great way for us to get to know who's worshipping with us and to connect you to our community. Again, welcome!

Call to Worship Psalm 8

O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

You have set your glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

When we look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established;

What are humans that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor.

You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet,

All sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Hymn O Lord, Our Lord, How Excellent #162

Communion Liturgy

May the Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us lift our hearts before the Lord.

We lift our hearts to the One who showers us with that grace which never ends.

May the words of given by God offer you new songs.

We will sing praise and thanksgiving to our God.

Lord, open our eyes so that we can see the best there is to see all around us and in every person we meet. Give us the ability to see others' struggles so we can help and encourage them. Teach us to open our hearts to forgive the one who has hurt us, who has disappointed us, who has stood in our way, so that we can understand. As we forgive, you bring love and lighten our load. Our minds often play tricks on us, and we remember things, temptations and mistakes, struggles and failures, and we dwell on them. Help us clear our minds, erase the thoughts and memories that hurt us, so that we can rejoice in the joy of all the blessings and good that we have. Lord, we ask for help to climb the mountains, and swim the oceans as we continue to grow in our faith knowing that our souls are covered in love from you and trusting you will bring us through anything. You are our inspiration, our comforter, our guide and our hope.

You are the Triune holy God. Even still, Jesus left your presence to be God with us. Looking around at all the places where we had wandered, he came to bring us home to you. Hearing our cries of loneliness, he came to be one of us, so we might all belong to him. Seeing sin rejoicing in our suffering, he went to the cross on our behalf, dying and then being raised to new life.

In fulfillment of Christ's promise, pour out your Spirit on us and the gifts which grace your Table. We eat the Bread of life so we might be strengthened. We drink deeply from the Cup, knowing you thirst for self-surrender, so we might offer ourselves as a fountain of faith to be poured out for the world. Amen.

Communion

The Lord Jesus, on the night of his arrest, took bread, and after giving thanks to God, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take, eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way he took the cup, saying:

This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me. Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the saving death of the risen Lord, until he comes.

Please come forward to receive communion as hosted by our Deacons.

Today's Choir Anthem – Mercy

I dare not lift my guilty eyes. I hide my lips in trembling shame. And in the darkness of my soul, I shrink from Your rekindling flame.

Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison, have mercy.

In mercy cover me with grace and blot out my iniquity. Renew my heart and wash me clean; grant with Your pardon, purity.

Kyrie eleison. Kyrie eleison, have mercy.

In equal measure of Your love, you promise mercy. Tender compassion to the one who seeks Your face. A broken heart, a fainting soul, a contrite spirit; together cry for Your forgiveness and Your grace.

Against You only have I sinned. My deeds are evil in Your sight. Of Your forgiveness let me sing, and in my singing take delight.

Kyrie eleison. Have mercy. Have mercy. Have mercy.

NOTE: Kyrie eleison means “Lord have mercy” and in Catholic liturgy a kyrie is a prayer.

Often a spoken response/prayer in mass:

Kyrie eleison – Lord have mercy

Christe eleison – Christ have mercy

Kyrie eleison – Lord have mercy
