Call to Worship

Psalm 15

Mike Clemans

O Lord, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy hill?

Those who walk blamelessly and do what is right and speak the truth from their heart;

Who do not slander with their tongue and do no evil to their friends nor heap shame upon their neighbors;

In whose eyes the wicked are despised but who honor those who fear the Lord; who stand by their oath even to their hurt;

Who do not lend money at interest and do not take a bribe against the innocent.

Those who do these things shall never be moved.

Hymn Spirit of God, Descent Upon My Heart - #326

Prayer of Confession

With what shall I come before the Lord? We come, knowing we've lived imperfectly, knowing we need forgiveness, and we ask what we could possibly offer for such a gift. When we come in honesty and repentance, we find a God who is ready to love, ready to forgive, and ready to renew us as children of God. Trusting in that grace, let us confess our sin, first together and then in silent prayer.

Merciful God, we come before you in confession. You have showered us with blessings, but we hoard those gifts, refusing to share with our neighbors in need. You have given us freedom to live justly, but we choose to ignore and judge others. You have called us to live in peaceful community, but we sow discord and cultivate fear among ourselves. Forgive us. Soften our hearts and open our minds to hear your call. Inspire us to act justly, love fiercely, and walk in your way each and every day. Lord, hear our prayers ...

Take a moment for silent personal confession and reflection.

Assurance of Pardon

The mercy of the Lord is deeper than the depths of the sea and wider than the whole of the earth. Friends, hear and believe the good news of the gospel: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, healed and made whole. Alleluia. Amen.
