

Communion Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to you, Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to praise you, Lord.

God of every moment, you alone are holy, and your Heart, Jesus, comes to bring us new life, new hopes, new spirit. As the Spirit rested upon him at baptism, so he calls us Beloved; as the Spirit accompanied him in the wilderness, so he is with us in moments of struggles; as the Spirit anointed him to serve, so he gives us the words to challenge injustice, the courage to resist easy choices, the determination to be faithful in welcoming all people.

And as the Spirit strengthened Jesus to confront the fear of death and abandonment, so the Spirit opens our closed hearts to the gracious news that death is no more, defeated once and for all by your resurrection love.

As we come to this Table, we remember the Spirit which was poured out at our baptism, the Spirit which fills us with new hope and life, the Spirit which transforms us into faithful people, and so we share that mystery we call faith:

Jesus gave his life, entering the silence of death;

Jesus was raised, as resurrection's new song was sung;

Jesus will come, and so we sing as long as we can, with the breath of the Spirit filling us.

Hymn

Spirit of the Living God

(Words at end of bulletin)

And when your Spirit comes at the end of all time and space, gather us with our sisters and brothers around the Table of grace and wonder where we will be filled with the Spirit's breath so we can sing your praises for all eternity, God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.

Communion

Our Lord Jesus, on the night of his arrest, took bread, and after giving thanks to God, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take, eat. This is my body, given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way he took the cup, saying:

This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink this cup, do it in remembrance of me.

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the saving death of the risen Lord, until he comes.

Communion is shared - You are now invited to take a bite of your bread and a sip from your cup and to taste the mystery of God's grace.

Summer Trek with the Corinthians led by Shirley Solberg Thursdays June 9 - September 2 - 4:00 p.m.

First Corinthians offers a challenging side trip in our journey of "making the road by walking." In the spirit of Brian McLaren, our goal will be to act upon, not just learn about, the apostle Paul's admonitions to the first century Christians in Corinth. Week by week we will consider the challenges faced - and created - by our forebears as we look for ways to translate Paul's teaching into constructive action for our place and time. We will share our thoughts about one - occasionally two - chapters of this meaty epistle each week. Bookmark your favorite Bible at I Corinthians, read under the Spirit's guidance, fire up your Zoom device, and prepare to add your insights each Thursday afternoon at 4:00 between June 9 and September 2.

Questions to Ponder for each Chapter

What ideas inspired or puzzled you as you read?

What is Paul asking the Corinthians to do?

How is our situation like or different from theirs?

What actions might our congregation or denomination take?

What challenges or changes does this chapter suggest for you personally?

131 Wind Who Makes All Winds That Blow

ABERYSTWYTH 7.7.7.7 D

Thomas H. Troeger, 1983

Joseph Parry, 1879

1. Wind who makes all winds that blow— Gusts that bend the sap-lings low,
 2. Fire who fuels all fires that burn— Suns a-round which plan-ets turn,
 3. Ho - ly Spir - it, Wind and Flame, Move with-in our mor-tal frame.

Gales that heave the sea in waves, Stir-rings in the mind's deep caves—
 Bea-cons mark-ing reefs and shoals, Shin-ing truth to guide our souls—
 Make our hearts an al-tar pyre, Kin-dle them with Your own fire.

Aim Your breath with stead-y power On Your church this day, this hour.
 Come to us as once You came: Burst in tongues of sa-cred flame!
 Breathe and blow up-on that blaze Till our lives, our deeds and ways,

Raise, re-new the life we've lost, Spir-it God of Pen-te-cost.
 Light and Pow-er, Might and Strength, Fill Your church, its breadth and length.
 Speak that tongue which ev-ery land By Your grace shall un-der-stand.

LIVING GOD Irregular

Daniel Iverson, 1935; adapted

Daniel Iverson, 1935

Spir - it of the liv - ing God, Fall a - fresh on me;

The first system of music features a treble and bass clef in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat. The melody in the treble clef consists of quarter and eighth notes, while the bass clef provides a harmonic accompaniment of chords and single notes.

Spir - it of the liv - ing God, Fall a - fresh on me.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system, maintaining the same rhythmic and harmonic structure.

Melt me, mold me, Fill me, use me.

The third system features a more active melody in the treble clef, with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass clef accompaniment remains primarily chordal.

Spir - it of the liv - ing God, Fall a - fresh on me.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in both the treble and bass clefs.
