

Sermon notes

The Gospel is for You and Your Household (Acts 16:25-34)

Kevin West (Mustard Seed Christian Church – Kobe) 8/14/2022

1. The gospel is for you and your household – Acts 16:30-31

The gospel is not for individuals only but flows outward beginning with our own “households.”

- Jot down some names of family members, relatives, or friends to pray that the gospel might flow from you to them.

2. The gospel flows to your household through public Christian worship – Acts 16:25

Public worship is a powerful way to expose your family, relatives, and others to the gospel.

- What are some specific opportunities you can use to invite people to come observe Christian worship?

3. The gospel flows to your household through gospel proclamation - Acts 16:32 (1 Peter 1:23, 25b, Romans 10:17)

People cannot be saved unless the first “_____” the gospel.

(Fill in the blank according to Romans 10:17)

- What can you do to give your family, relatives, friends, a chance to hear the gospel proclaimed?