ALL SAINTS' AND DEDICATION SUNDAY
EARLY MORNING WORSHIP
IN THE CHAPEL
NOVEMBER 7, 2021 – 8:00 AM

WORTHINGTON
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

An outgrowth of the various “feast days” honoring early Christian martyrs, All Saints’ Day – a time to remember saints of the church through the ages – is observed by most parts of the Christian church on or around November 1st. Our Reformed tradition understands this festival as the sanctification of the whole people of God, not simply the “storied heroes” of faith, but the holy lives of all believers, irrespective of fame and standing. And in so doing we take this time to give thanks to God especially for those members of our faith community who have died this past year.

SERVICE FOR THE LORD’S DAY

 Please rise in body or spirit.*

GATHERING MUSIC

“For All the Saints”

Ralph Vaughan Williams
arr. Matt Limbaugh

Melissa Robol, pianist

The music is a call to open one’s spirit to God’s presence in our midst.

WELCOME & OPENING SENTENCES

Rev. Dr. Julia Wharff Piermont

HYMN #1

“Holy, Holy, Holy”

NICAEA

*Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!*

*Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.*

*Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee, though the eye of sinfulness thy glory may not see,
only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
perfect in power, in love and purity.*

*Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea.
Holy, holy, holy; merciful and mighty!
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!*

(Reginald Heber 1827, alt.)

 PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ. Amen.

(A Brief Time for Silent Confession)

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The Word of our Lord.
Thanks be to God.

NEW TESTAMENT READING

Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

The Word of our Lord.
Thanks be to God.

SERMON

"What Are You Hungry For?"

Dr. Piermont

* HYMN OF DEDICATION

"Son of God, Eternal Savior"

IN BABILONE

*Son of God, eternal Savior, source of life and truth and grace, Word made flesh, whose birth among us hallows all our human race, you, our Head, who, throned in glory, for your own will ever plead;
fill us with your love and pity, heal our wrongs and help our need.*

*As you, Lord, have lived for others, so may we for others' live;
freely have our gifts been granted; freely may your servants give.
Yours, the gold and yours the silver, yours the wealth of land and sea;
we but stewards of your bounty held in solemn trust will be.*

(Somerset Corry Lowell, 1893)

INVITATION

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

* HYMN #301

"Let Us Build a House"

TWO OAKS

*Let us build a house where love can dwell And all can safely live,
A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
all are welcome; all are welcome; all are welcome in this place.*

*Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat;
a banquet hall on holy ground where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
all are welcome; all are welcome; all are welcome in this place.*

*Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.
Build of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace;
let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:
all are welcome; all are welcome; all are welcome in this place.*

THINGS TO DO & WAYS TO HELP

PANDEMIC PRECAUTIONS

The City of Worthington instituted a face covering requirement for all publicly accessible indoor locations effective Thursday, Sept. 16. The requirement applies to all individuals, regardless of COVID-19 vaccination status. While churches are exempt from this mandate, we request that whenever possible masks be worn inside the building. During preschool hours, masks are required in the preschool areas.

CELEBRATING DEDICATION SUNDAY

Today is Dedication Sunday, the final Sunday of our Annual Generosity Campaign. For those who have not mailed in their pledge, or pledged online, please bring your pledge cards to whichever service you attend. Enjoy refreshments and cookies outside the chapel after the 8 a.m. service and inside Hazelton Hall after the 10 a.m. service.

CELEBRATING ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY

We invite you to join us and visit our Columbarium prior to or after worship services today to celebrate the resurrection of those saints who have gone on before us to eternal life. The Columbarium Board has recognized with bows those members of the church who have chosen our Columbarium as their final resting place.

Through the generosity of two church members, the Columbarium also has two new benches. One bench has been donated by Dick Baker in memory of his beloved wife, Jan. The second bench has been given by a member who wishes to remain anonymous. Please take some time to visit these new additions.

"LIES MY PREACHER TOLD ME" BEGINS TODAY

We begin a 5-week series today at 9 a.m. in Room 222 or via Zoom. Please pick up the book from the church office or contact Pastor Tom Rice if you need one delivered. Please read chapters 1 and 2 prior to the first class.

STORYTELLER, COMIC, PROPHET & CHURCH REFORMER: HOW FRANCIS CONTINUES TO INSPIRE

Pastor Tom Rice will lead a program on the untold story of St. Francis and how his life and teachings can help us be more joyful, peaceful, loving followers of Jesus. Join us at 7 p.m. in Hazelton Hall with refreshments at 6:30 p.m. Sponsored by Presbyterian Women.

LISTENING FOR GOD: CHILDREN'S BOOKS CELEBRATING DIFFERENCES

Tuesday, Nov. 9, 7 p.m. via Zoom and in the Chapel

Do you need tools and strategies for entering with thoughtfulness into topics of gender, race, developmental disabilities and socioeconomic equality with your child or grandchild?

Join 30+ year veteran teacher Jenn Wilkinson as she helps us discover diverse books and authors. She will model how to unlock creativity and imagination when we read and share children's books.

THANKSGIVING DINNERS MISSION PROJECT

WPC will be delivering 250 Thanksgiving meals to needy families from Worthington schools, Salem, and Hamilton elementary schools in Columbus. We are collecting monetary donations today, Nov. 14, and Nov. 21 after each worship service.

- Checks are payable to "Worthington Presbyterian Church." Note "thanksgiving dinners" on the memo line.
- You may mail checks to WPC at 773 High St. Worthington, OH 43085.
- Donations may also be made through easyTithe.

Each dinner costs about $55.00. We will be asking for help with assemblage of the meal boxes closer to the holiday Stay tuned!

CHRISTMAS POINSETTIAS

During the season of Advent, we decorate our beautiful sanctuary with poinsettias to enhance the worship experience for those attending in person and livestream. The Ministry of Worship and Arts is accepting honorariums and memorials for poinsettias. If you would like to honor a loved one, please send your $20 donation, along with the form below to the church office no later than Monday, December 13. The dedications will appear in the Christmas eve bulletin. Please print legibly.

THE CHANCEL CHOIR
Dr. David Rives, director

Take my life, that I may be consecrated, Lord, to thee. Take my moments and my days; let them flow in ceaseless praise. Take my hands and let them move at the impulse of thy love. Take my feet and let them be swift and beautiful for thee. Take my voice and let me sing always, only for my King. Take my lips and let them be filled with messages from thee. Take my love, my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store. Take myself and I will be ever, only, all for thee. Amen.

"Give Thanks for Those Whose Faith Is Firm"

REPTON

*Give thanks for those whose FAITH is firm when all around seems bleak:
on God's good promise they rely, so while they live and when they die how forcefully they speak: the strong, who once were weak!*

*Give thanks for those whose HOPE is clear, beyond mere mortal sight:
who seek the city God has planned, the true, eternal promised land,
and steer on toward that light, a beacon ever bright.*

*Give thanks for those whose LOVE is pure, a sparkling precious stone:
they show by what they say and do an inward beauty, warm and true, for God's concerns they own: God's love through them is known.*

*Give thanks for SAINTS of ages past and SAINTS alive today:
Though often by this world despised, their hearts by God are richly prized.
Give thanks that we may say we share their pilgrim way.*

(Martin E. Leckebusch, 1998)

This text was written in 1998 by a British numerical analyst who is also an accomplished hymn writer and Elder in a Baptist congregation. Its words are remarkably appropriate for today's dual celebration of All Saints' Day, and WPC's dedication of Pledges for 2022, beautifully lifting up the theme of this year's Generosity campaign – Faithful, Hopeful, Loving. The tune, REPTON, widely considered a Victorian classic hymn, was written in 1888 by C. Hubert H. Parry, and has been set most often over the years to "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."
