

Unchanging Love in Changing Times

Romans 8:31-39// May 1, 2022

INTRODUCTION:

- Icebreaker: If you could time travel (and you can't mess up the timeline), which time period would you visit?
- Take some time to pray for one another and read the passage.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

- V. 31 challenges us to think about who can be against us if God is for us. What are the usual culprits in your life that tempt you to doubt that God is for you? What does it mean that God is for us?
- V. 32: In what ways are we tempted to think that God is stingy towards us? How does the Gospel dispel that notion?
- Vv. 33-34: How does God's counting of us as righteous in Christ negate any charge of unrighteousness against us?
  - V. 34 implies that there is fear of condemnation from God toward our sin, and Jesus is the one who deals with that problem. How so?
- Vv. 35-37: Considering all the candidates for separating us from God's love, how does God and His love for us give us victory and vindication towards those would-be "separators"?
- Vv. 38-39: Share a personal testimony when you experienced the love of God in Christ Jesus during a very difficult moment in your life. How did God's love carry you through?
