

The promised King of peace

Isaiah 11:1-10// December 5th, 2021

DISCUSSION QUESTION

What was helpful from the sermon or text?

What is making you anxious right now? How do you think God is inviting you to trust him in this challenge?

Christmas exudes promised peace, what we all want. What do you think right now would give you peace if you got it? How might the gospel help you correct your thinking?

Anxiety is a real problem in our society, because it is a real thing. Anxiety can manifest itself in normal ways like worrying about normal life challenges, to a medical diagnosis of anxiety. How does this verse minister to your heart?

What do you think Isaiah is trying to convey in the imagery of opposite animals dwelling in peace in verses 6 through 9? How might this point to the gospel and the message of Advent?

“The disappointment, brokenness, suffering, and pain that characterize life in this present world is held in dynamic tension with the promise of future glory that is yet to come. In that Advent tension, the church lives its life.” - Fleming Rutledge

How can we pray for one another specifically in this season of Advent?

Announcements

Members meeting Dec 12th at 5pm at the Church.