

Ephesians 6:1-9

Chris Jones // Nov 7th 2021

DISCUSSION QUESTION

We see the significance of the home in this passage. God puts an emphasis on the home life of Christians. In your own life, what factors make this passage difficult to live out?

When it comes to work we can often believe a lot of lies about our jobs. We can view our jobs as insignificant, or we can view our jobs as who we are; our identity in whole. Of these two sides, which one would you lean more in?

Why are both of these views on work wrong? And what does a healthy, God-honoring view of work look like in your opinion?

Work can also be a place where gospel ministry can happen to your co-workers who don't know Christ. This comes with time and tact. Have you ever had any opportunity to talk about your faith at work? If so, how did it go? Lastly, how did the conversation get to the topic of faith?

Our culture is one that is highly self indulgent, where discipline is thrown to the wayside. Yet, the bible speaks much of and often about the fruit of discipline, both personal and parenting discipline. Have you ever experienced the fruit of discipline in work, spiritual life, or any other area?

What does discipline in parenting look like for you? Or if you don't have children but you grew up in a home where it was practiced with grace and love, what do you remember about your parents?

Pray together.

Announcements

Membership class Dec 4th at the church from 10am-noon. Coffee/Bagels will be provided.

Members' covenants due Dec 1st for all members not installed in 2021.

No CG's during Thanksgiving Week, nor from Dec 13-Jan 2