The Partners Who Yield to God's Will

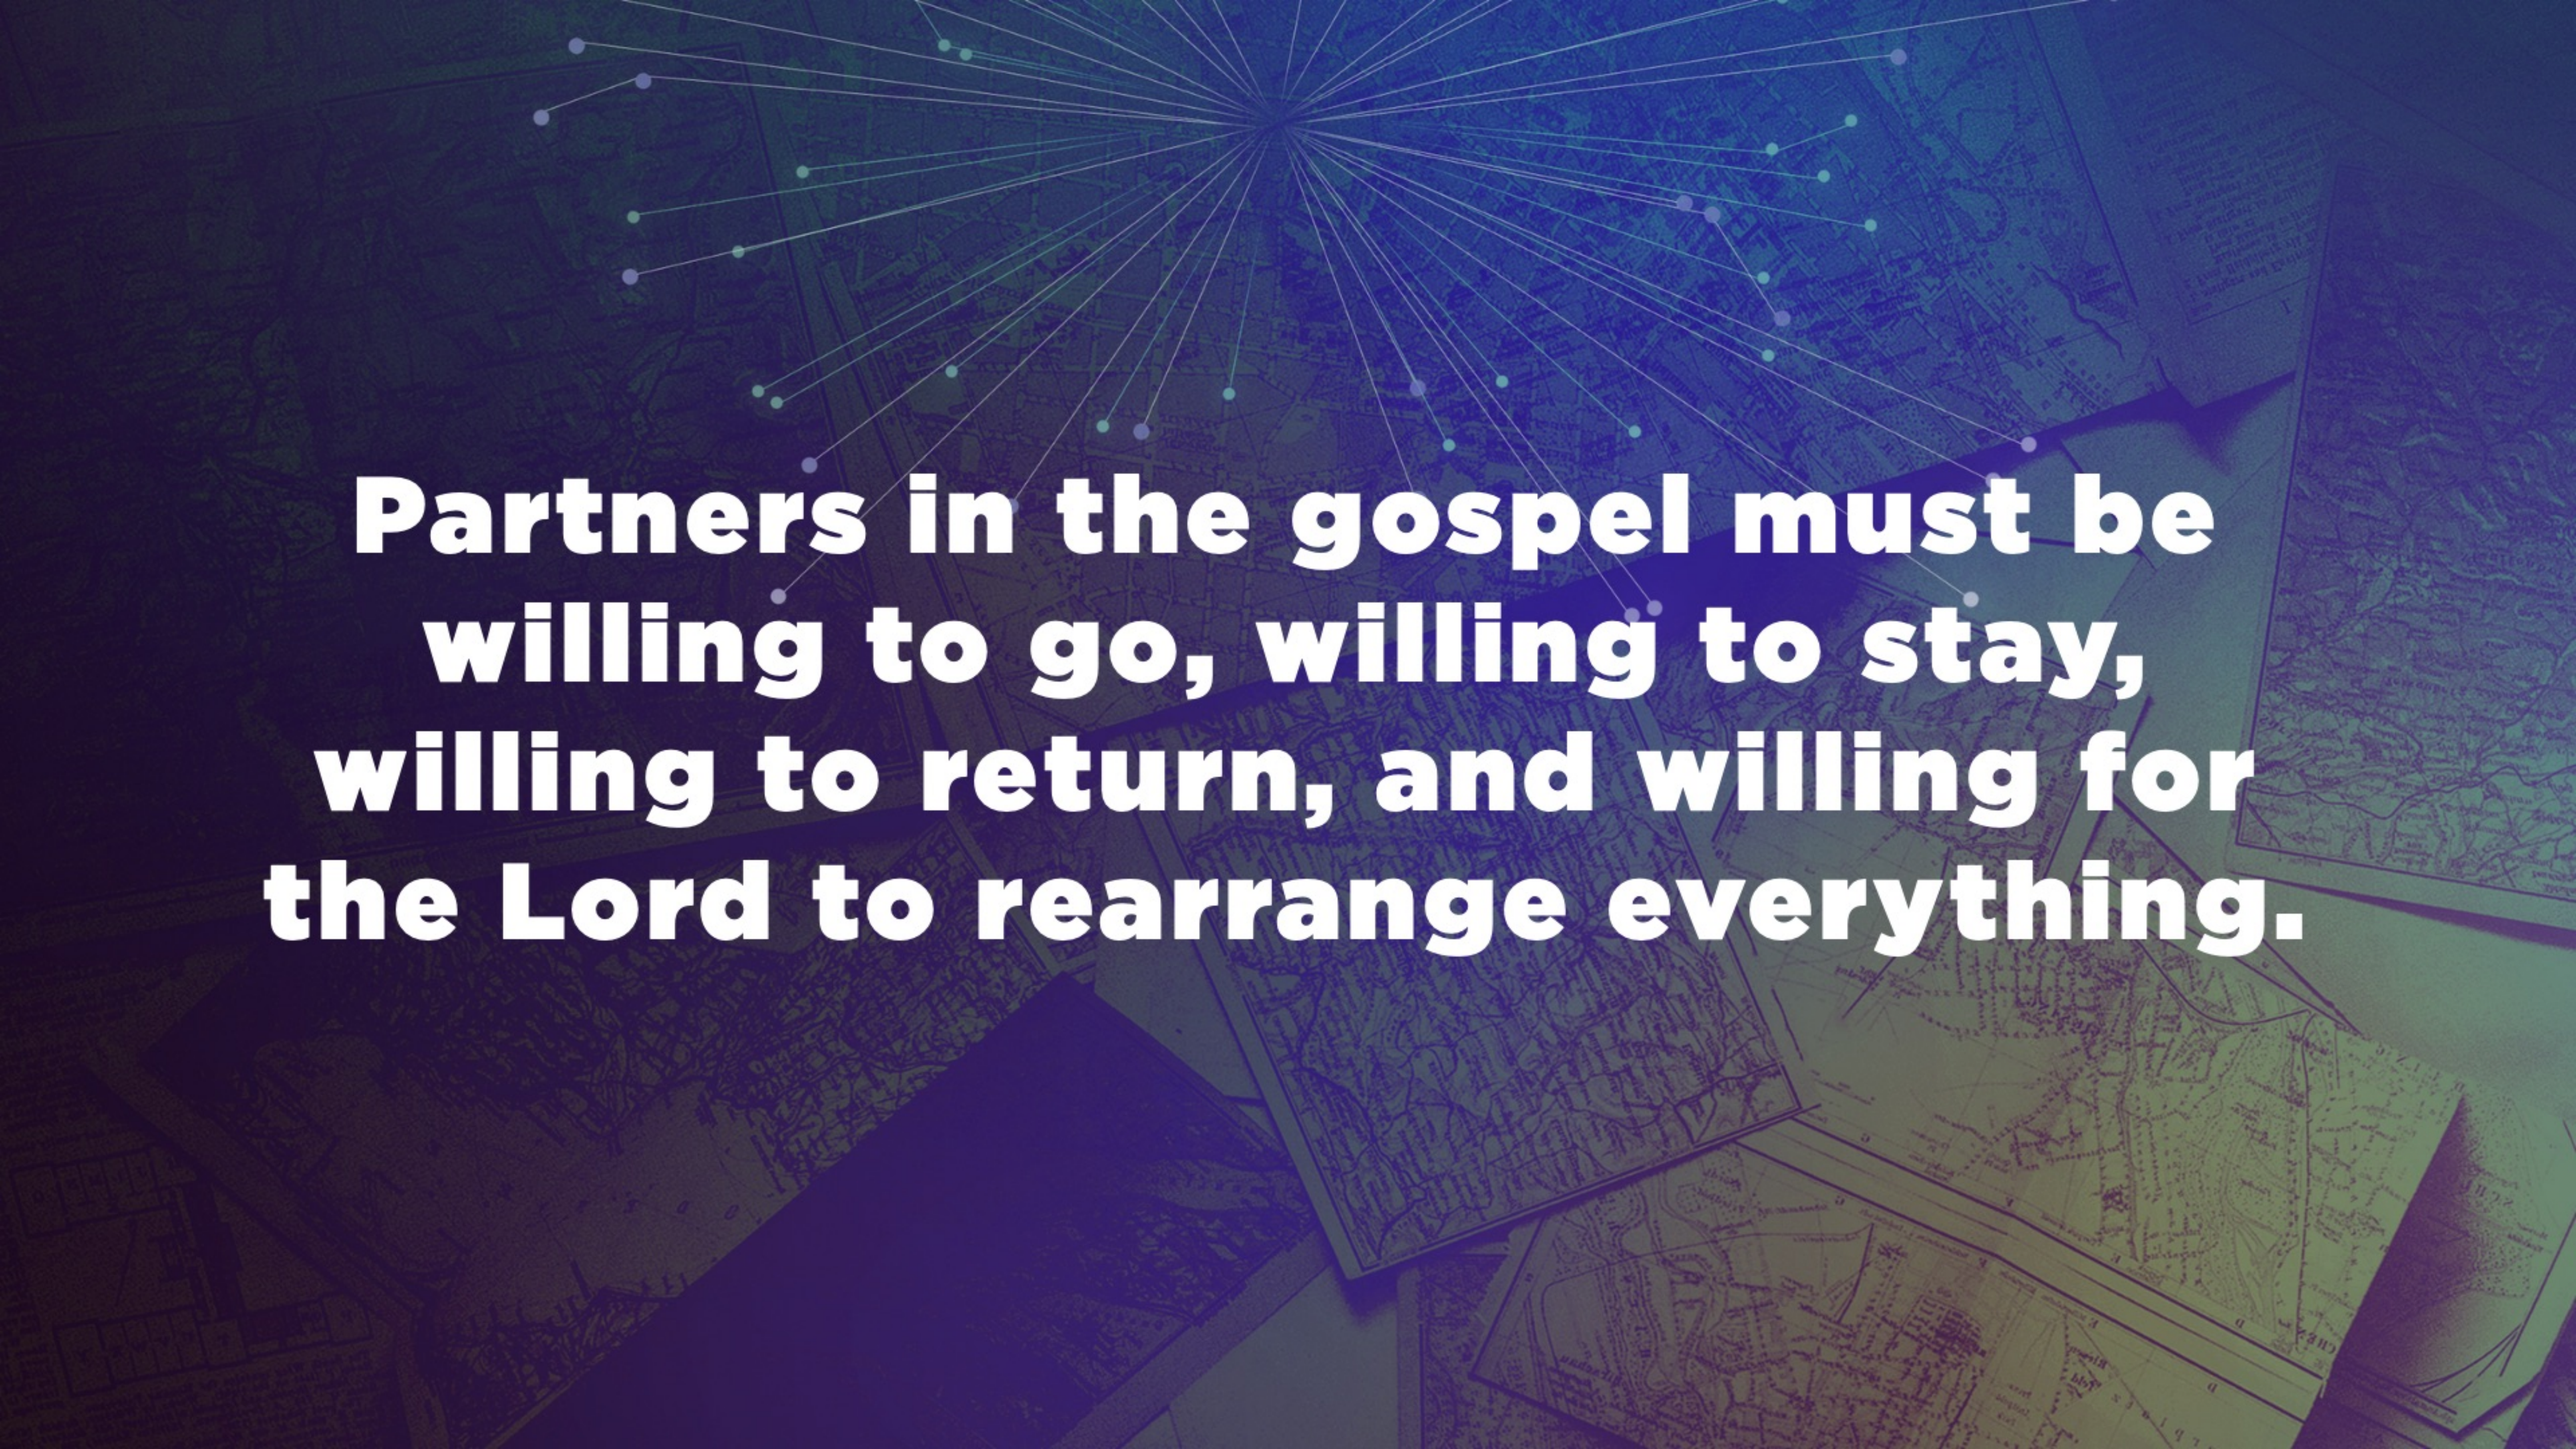

After this, Paul stayed many days longer and then took leave of the brothers and set sail for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had cut his hair, for he was under a vow.

ACTS 18:18

And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there,
but he himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. When they asked him to stay for a longer period, he declined. But on taking leave of them he said, “I will return to you if God
wills,” and he set sail from Ephesus.

ACTS 18:19-21

Partners in the gospel must be willing to go, willing to stay, willing to return, and willing for
the Lord to rearrange everything.

A Purpose That Strengthens the Saints

When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch. After spending some time there, he departed and went from one place to the next through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Ministry keeps moving in both directions: strong believers help strengthen churches, and health churches help strengthen believers.

A Preacher Made Better by Humble Friends

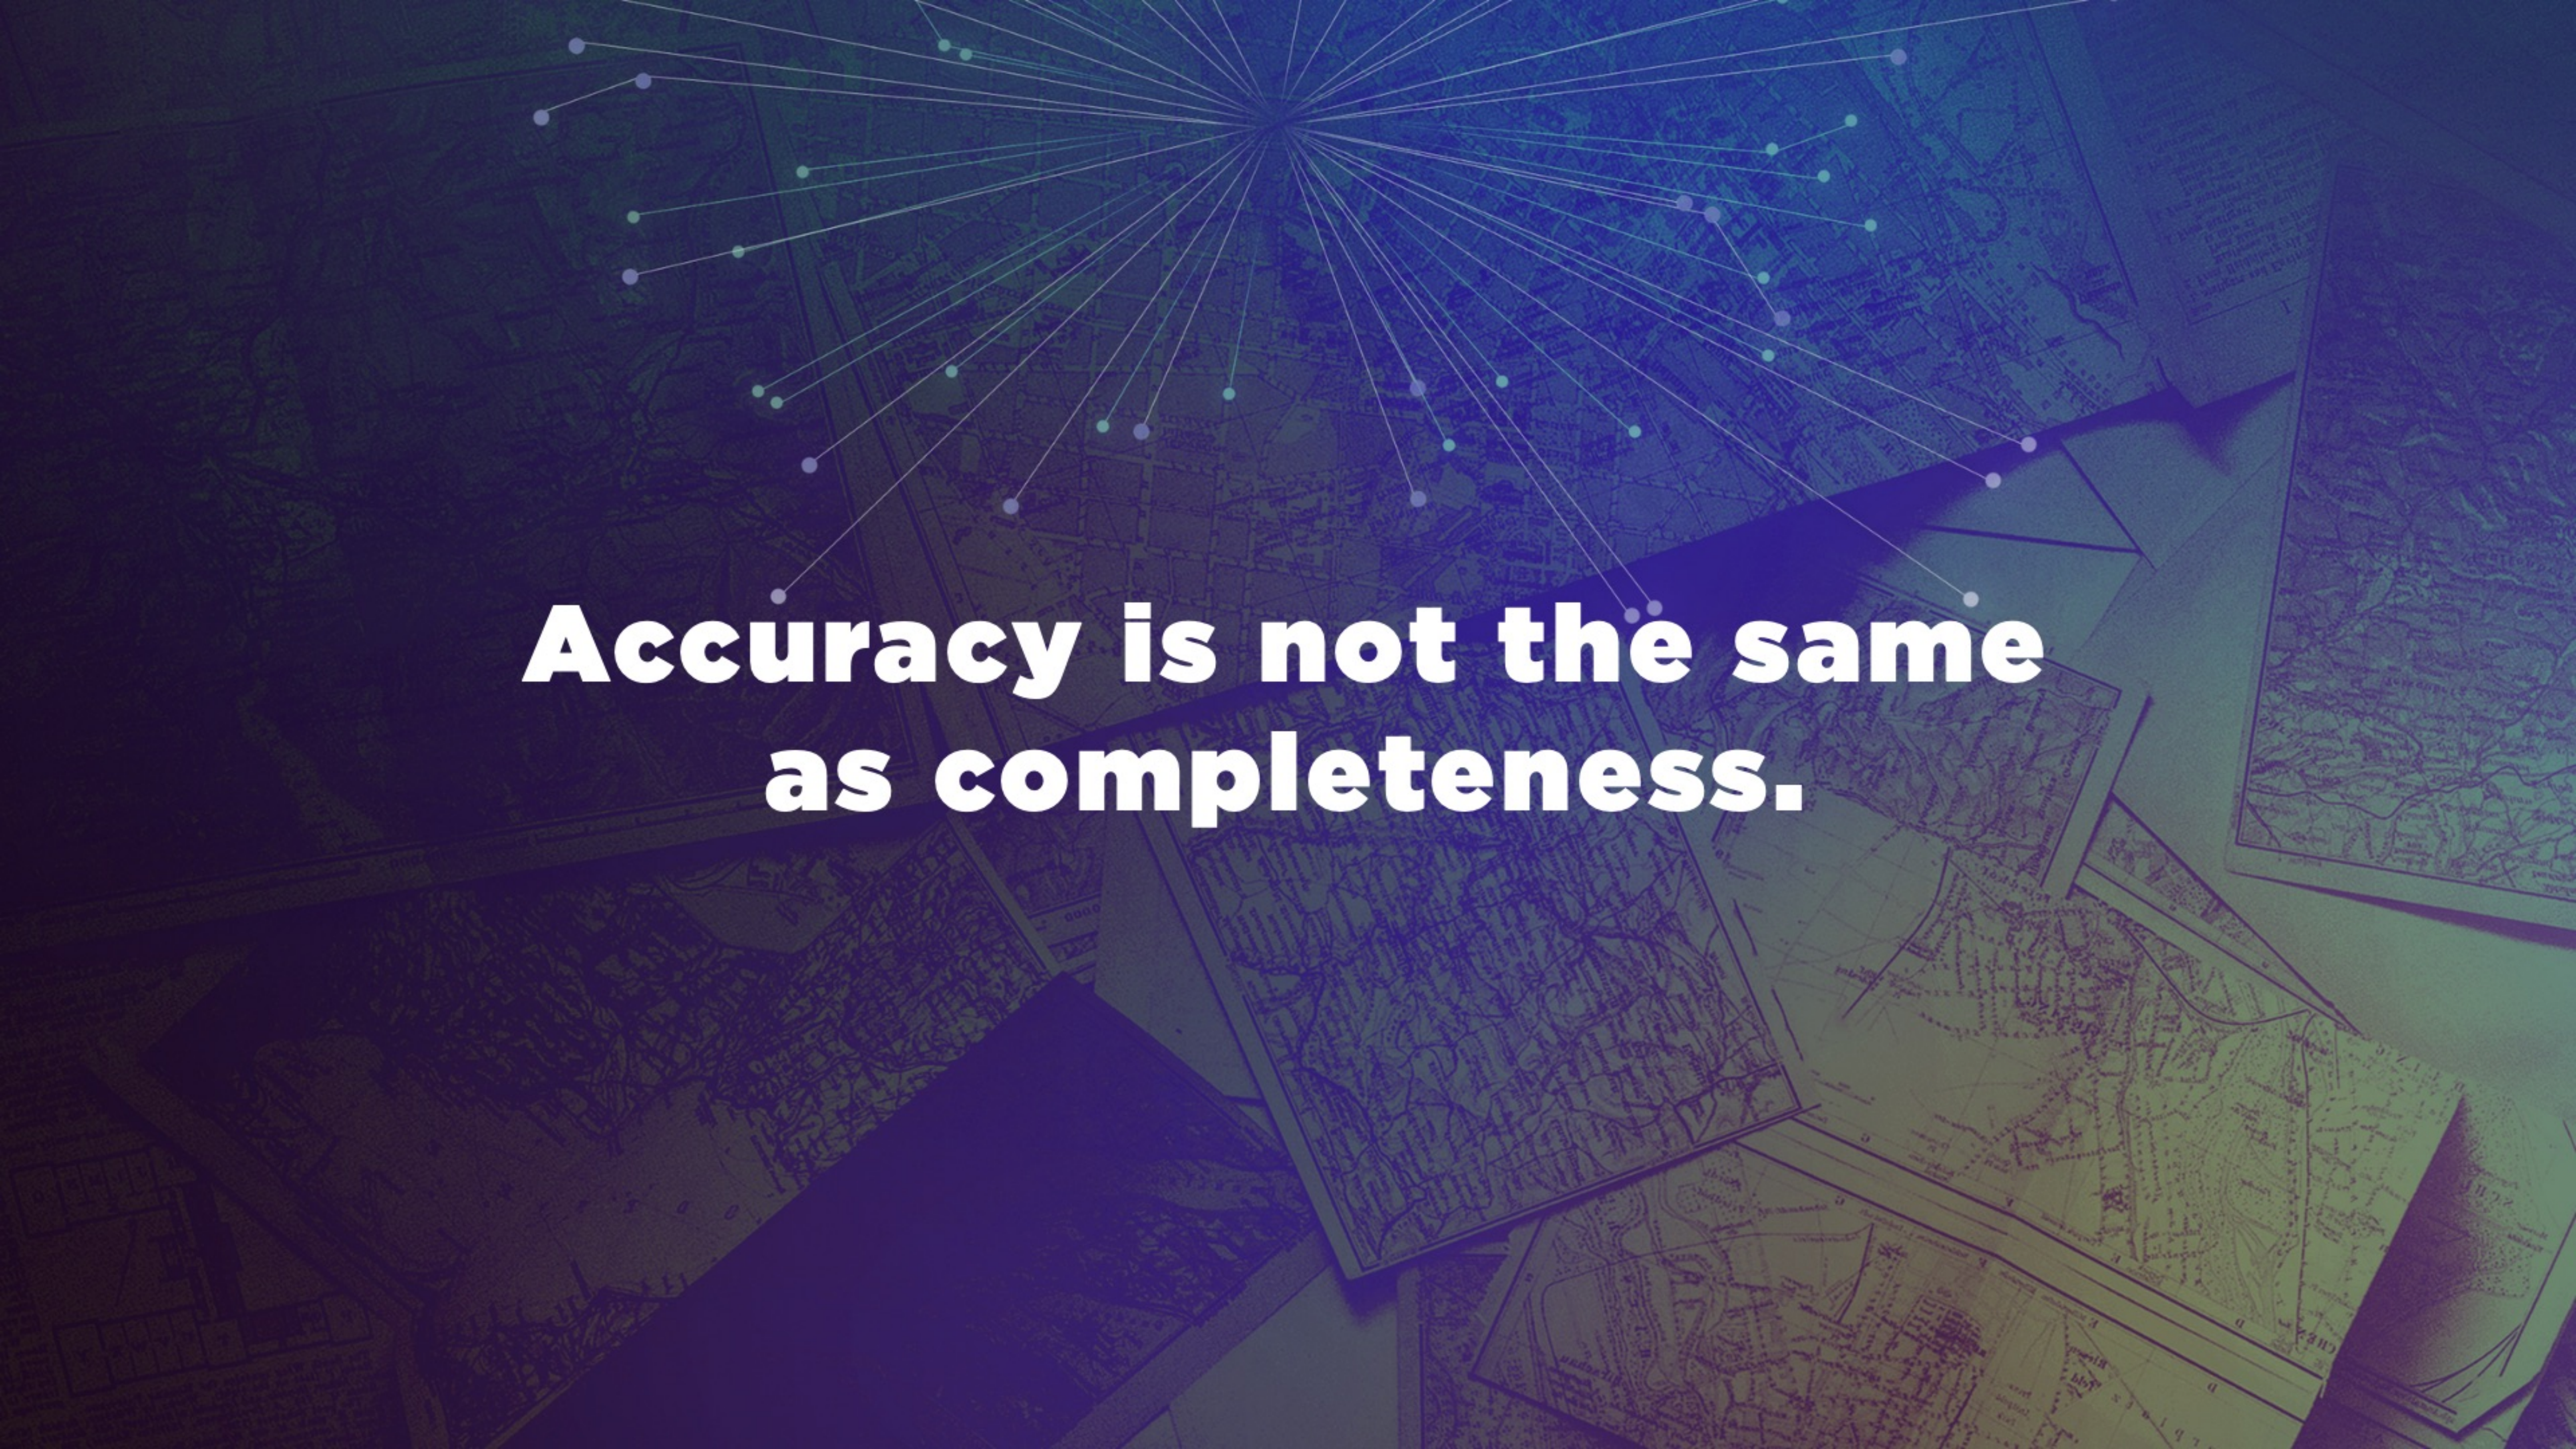

Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures. He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John.

He began to speak boldly in the synagogue,
but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him,
they took him aside and explained to him
the way of God more accurately.

ACTS 18:26

Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the Scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

ACTS 18:27-28

ACTS 18:27-28

I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth.

1 CORINTHIANS 3:6

Who has God placed beside you? Is there an Apollos you could encourage and gently help? Is there a Priscilla or Aquila whose correction you need to receive? Is there a weary disciple whom your presence, prayer, or biblical counsel could strengthen this week? Do not despise the part God has given you, and do not pretend that you have no need of the parts He has given to others. We are partners who submit our plans to God's will, disciples committed to strengthening one another, and servants humble enough both to teach and to be taught. Complemented, not complicated - many members, one body; many servants, one gospel; many gifts, one Lord; and all the glory belongs to God.
